

Leadership from the Heart

Our horses demonstrate and teach organizational dynamics and team building strategies offering participants skills for increased productivity and enhanced revenue production in their workplace. Integral HorseMapping is participant centered and solution focused.

About Barbara K. Rector

Barbara has almost four decades sharing horses with people for their mutual benefit – mentally, physically, emotionally and spiritually. She has traveled the world training the trainers in her Adventure In Awareness process. Locally Barbara has held key leadership roles at Therapeutic Riding of Tucson (TROT) and Sierra Tucson Hospital where she developed the Equine Facilitated Psychotherapy (EFP) program. On a national level, she is co-founder of the Equine Facilitated Mental Health Association and has served two terms on the NARHA Board of Trustees. Currently Barbara serves as Secretary on Certification Board for Equine Interaction Professionals.

"I was new to horses. Getting to know them up close and recognizing I actually could 'read' their non-verbal communication gave me first hand experience with how much information is being exchanged – between people – all the time. The exercises with the horses helped me discover my inner leader. Fun Day, -Will W.
