

Al-Marah Pasture Walk with Adventures In Awareness

Saturday, April 10, 2010

10 am - 4 pm

Al-Marah Arabians

Al-Marah Arabians

Al-Marah Arabians was established by Bazy Tankersley in 1941. Her priorities are unparalleled: Classic Arabian beauty, amenable loving dispositions, and all around athletic ability. Al-Marah produces horses for the most exacting professional trainer, that are child friendly, and competitive winners for the amateur. The attitude, heart and desire of the Al-Marah horses is world renown.

Al-Marah offers one of the most experienced management teams, combining over 140 years of experience. We offer a full service facility which includes: Training for both horse and rider; Breeding to stallions that consistently produce champions; Sales - matching the right horse and rider.

Directions

Take Grant Rd. East. Turn left onto Tanque Verde. Turn left onto Bear Canyon Rd (It is the 1st light after the Tanque Verde overpass bridge). Drive North for 3/4 mile. Just past the school on your right is large curve with Al-Marah drive way on the left. If gate is closed, use the auto opener near entrance.

Join Bazy Tankersley and Barbara Rector as they walk the pastures of Al-Marah discussing the influence of the mare on her foal.

Nestled below the Catalina Mountains in Tucson, Arizona, the pastures of Al-Marah Arabians provide an opportunity to explore how both the mare and the environment contribute to the nature and the nurturing of the foal.

Schedule

Saturday, April 10th, 10 am to 4 pm: The morning is devoted to exploring and practicing with observational skills from the fresh perspective of Adventures In Awareness. The afternoon pasture walk will be with Mrs. Tankersley.

Lunch: Bring your own sack lunch and drink to eat in the sale barn courtyard.

Also bring a notebook or journal, your own lunch, personal non-breakable water bottle, sun hat and sunscreen. Dress in layers and wear suitable shoes for walking about the farm.

Fees

The Pasture Walk is $75.00 per person for the day.
